WHO CAN VOTE

"Qualified Electors" are individuals who own real property within the benefited area of the Middle Rio Grande

Conservancy District and who have provided proof of ownership interest to one of the sources specified in [§ 73-14-20.1, subsection B, NMSA 1978] at least 90 days prior to June 7, 2011 and who resides on and owns legal or equitable title in Tribal lands and who is over the age of majority.

A qualified elector may vote once at any polling location within the District. You need not be a registered voter or irrigator to vote.

VOTING ELEGIBILITY

If you own property within the benefited area of the district and have a recorded deed, you are eligible to vote.

Qualified Elector names shall be obtained from the records of the County Clerk and/or Assessor of Sandoval, Bernalillo, Valencia and Socorro counties, MRGCD records, and the enrollment records of the six Middle Rio Grande pueblos within the district.

Any person who purchases property, at least 90 days prior to the election (March 10, 2011) and whose names does not appear on the qualified electors list may vote by provisional ballot.

It is then the responsibility of the voter to supply the Conservancy District with proof of property ownership before 4:00 p.m. on Thursday, June 9, 2011.

If no proof of ownership is supplied, the provisional ballot will be discarded and the vote will not be recorded.

The individual may become eligible to vote in a future election by filing a deed of title with the appropriate County Clerk at least 90 days before the next MRGCD election.

ELECTION FAQ's

Am I a voter?

If you own property within the benefitted areas of the Conservancy District, and your name is listed on the property deed, you are a qualified voter.

Is my property within the Conservancy District?

The best way to determine if your property is in the Conservancy District is to look at your County Notice of Value or County Tax Bill for an MRGCD assessment. All properties within the benefitted area of the Conservancy District pay an ad valorem assessment.

Where do I vote?

You can vote at any MRGCD polling location listed on page 2, regardless of where, within district boundaries, your property is located.

What if I go to vote but my name isn't on the list?

You can vote by provisional ballot. Your vote will count once you have provided proof of your ownership to the Election Director or Election Officer. If you vote provisionally, you have until Thursday, June 9, 2011 to bring in your proof of ownership.

When are the polls open on election day?

7:00am to 7:00pm, Tuesday, June 7, 2011.

What positions are up for election?

There are three positions open for the 2011 election. :
Position 1 - At-Large (representing entire MRGCD)
Position 2 - Bernalillo County
Position 5 - Valencia County
