

Revive the Valley: Unlock Your Land's Potential!

The Center of Southwest Culture is a local nonprofit whose mission is to develop healthy Indigenous and Mexicano / Chicano communities through economic development, cultural, and educational programs. Our work takes a linguistically and culturally supportive approach and is centered on cultural lifeways, traditional knowledge, and existing resources to increase overall community health.

HOW YOU CAN HELP

The Center is seeking irrigable farmland that has been fallow or unused in the South Valley area, where beginning Indigenous and Mexicano farmers who need access to land can have space to grow their produce to help feed our local communities. Landowners would benefit from keeping their water rights and could qualify for an agricultural tax exemption for having land in agricultural production.

BENEFITS FOR PROPERTY OWNERS

- Increase biodiversity
- Improve soil health
- Retain water rights
- Qualify for agricultural tax exemption

BENEFITS FOR FARMERS

- $1 per year lease agreement
- Space to grow produce
- Increased economic stability
- Access to land in or near their own communities
